QUESTION 1

Your first job: making a good impression

Shortly after graduation, when the strains of Pomp and Circumstance have begun to fade into the past, it is time for you to start the next phase of your life. You will begin your first "real job". Generally speaking, most of what you learned in school will not prepare you for this. Perhaps you did an internship or participated in some other type of cooperative education experience. In that case, good for you. You will be a step ahead of your peers. However, there is a big difference between being a student at work and being an employee. Certainly, more will be expected of you.

Write 3 good impressions for the first job.

QUESTION 4 :: Read the text below and explain what can be inferred from it.

Fire and rain!

This year, communities around the world have experienced a dramatic increase in climate-related natural disasters, [...] leaving behind devastation. [...] The extreme fires and storms of 2017 signify more than just a 'new normal'. With each fraction of a degree that Earth's average temperature increases, these fires and storms will increase in intensity. [...] Some evidence suggests that by midcentury, fires and storms could double in their destructive power. [...] The 'new normal' will be constant change; a growing intensity of storms, fires, and other extreme weather [...]
